by Ken Borgers: Saturday, March 14, KCTY.org and KCTY.org were guests on Los Angeles-based station LATalk Live.com. Owner/Program Host Vaneric Marshall gave us a fabulous time. The station is located in the historic Paradise Building on Sepulveda Blvd., just a stone's throw from LAX, and in fact in an earlier incarnation, because of its proximity to the airport, the building played host to the Academy Awards! Pictures from those earlier days still adorn the Paradise's corridors.

LATalk Live (www.latalive.com) has been in the building for the last four years, the flagship of an American network serving up a provocative mix of progressive talk and eclectic music, with a home-grown collection of talented hosts and a nearly non-stop stream of celebrity guests. Vaneric and his team fed all of us a delicious lunch, then put us on the air as his guests for the entire Vaneric Rock Show. Everyone got a chance to plug his/her show; KCTY's Veronica Melendrez even provided an impromptu performance, accompanying herself on the ukelele!

A huge shout-out and THANK YOU! to Vaneric and all the folks at LATalk Live! BEST Field Trip EVER!!!!
